larkit | Fraction stories Grade 2 · Fractions

Answer key The answers are filled in.

1. Three teammates share a quesadilla at a picnic. Each one gets the same amount. What fraction of the quesadilla does each teammate get? $\frac{1}{3}$

2. Six friends share a pizza equally. What fraction of the pizza does each friend get? $\frac{1}{6}$

3. Four cousins share a pizza at a picnic. Each one gets the same amount. What fraction of the pizza does each cousin get? $\frac{1}{4}$

4. Dev cuts a pie into equal parts for four kids. Each one gets one part. What fraction of the pie does each kid get? $\frac{1}{4}$

5. Six kids share a pie at a picnic. Each one gets the same amount. What fraction of the pie does each kid get? $\frac{1}{6}$

6. Lena cuts a watermelon into equal parts for eight kids. Each one gets one part. What fraction of the watermelon does each kid get? $\frac{1}{8}$

7. Kim cuts a watermelon into equal parts for three cousins. Each one gets one part. What fraction of the watermelon does each cousin get? $\frac{1}{3}$

8. Eight kids share a watermelon at a picnic. Each one gets the same amount. What fraction of the watermelon does each kid get? $\frac{1}{8}$

9. Hugo cuts a watermelon into equal parts for three teammates. Each one gets one part. What fraction of the watermelon does each teammate get? $\frac{1}{3}$

10. Wren cuts a birthday cake into equal parts for six friends. Each one gets one part. What fraction of the cake does each friend get? $\frac{1}{6}$

Score: ____ / 10